

56th Annual Members Exhibition
Gallery Warwick, Warwick, N.Y.
March 6 – March 28, 2010

Exhibition Judge – Susan Handler Konvit

Susan Handler Konvit is an artist, arts educator, grant writer, and founder and Executive Director of The Arts Alliance of the Lower Hudson Valley, a non-profit educational organization. She has recently been named Orange County's 2009 Arts Educator. Susan Handler's works address the social issues that affect women worldwide. Her work as an arts educator focuses on utilizing the arts as an educational tool to communicate cultural, historical, environmental, and humanitarian issues. She has developed programs for community cultural development, the Arts-in-Education (AIE) Residency Program, and multidisciplinary art programs, exhibits, and festivals. These included Environmental Visions, International Mosaic, Art About Water, Women Artists of the Hudson Valley, and the 2002-2005 television program "The Arts Alliance Presents." Internationally, she had the honor of working with the Ethiopian UN delegation in Mexico City at the United Nations 4th World Water Forum, "Local Actions for Global Challenge," where she led a team of 5 artists using indigenous arts to communicate scientific information about water. Konvit is currently editing recordings for an upcoming Pete Seeger CD commemorating the life and thoughts of this legendary folk singer and activist.
